

I have just recently acquired a vehicle with XM radio and I love it. I have access to a variety of programming including weather and traffic conditions. This is very convient for me when I travel. I had doubts about paying extra for radio, but so far I am very happy with the product I receive and would not like to see the services offered reduced.